

Pinot Grigio 2010

The wine is produced 100% from the Pinot Grigio variety of grapes grown in the vineyards surrounding the Chateau Kamnik winery. The wine is characterized by a specific hay-like pale color with hues of green. It is fresh, citrus-flower-like on the nose, with mineral subtone. The taste is medium full, with a typical freshness which gives the wine harmony and vivacity.

Best served chilled at 8-10°C, with fresh seafood, salmon starters/appetizers, pasta in a variety of white sauces and chicken meat.

Alcohol: 14.11 % Vol.

Bottled: January, 2011
