

Winemaker's Selection 2009

A premium dry red wine produced by blending Sangiovese, Cabernet Sauvignon and Cabernet Franc grapes. The wine has a nice and transparent ruby red color. The nose is complex, distinguished for its fruity-vegetative character and hits of vanilla, oak and mocca. The taste is medium full, balanced and pleasant, with a velvety structure, fine and soft tannins and with a long aftertaste.

Best served at 14-16°C. Combine this wine with assorted cheese, Italian sausages and various meat dishes.

Alcohol: 13,4% Vol.

Bottled: June 2011
